

Activities 2015-2016

- The student council activities started with an Elocution competition which was organized in view of the ongoing event namely 'Godavari Pushkaralu'. Following that was an essay writing competition in the memory of Late Mr. Y S R Reddy, celebrating his 66th birth anniversary. Awakening the patriotic spirit among students just before the Independence Day, a group song competition was held on 6th of August. Solo singing competition was also conducted in three categories-classical, semi-classical and light. A group dance competition was conducted to bring out the best dancing talents of students.
- The student council on behalf of all the students presented small tokens of love and respect to the teachers on teacher's day.
- In the memory of the greatness of one such teacher, the Mrs. Nakra Memorial debate competition was conducted on 15th of September. The topic of the debate was 'Social Networking- an effective tool for nation building.
- The annual feature of A D Shroff memorial elocution competition was conducted in the memory of Late A D Shroff with the object of encouraging the students to think and speak on topics of national interest like disaster management, emerging trends of globalization and the like.
- ECO Buzz, the Economics department of the college conducted an Economics Quiz Contest named 'THE YOUNG ECONOMIST' where various colleges were invited for participation. We were overwhelmed by the response and participation of the students.

- BUZI COM, the commerce association had organised a full day ‘Buzi Com Mela’ putting up various food items, games and crafts for sale and organised a rangoli competition on the eve of Sankranti and an Exhibition on coins and currency along with crafts sale.
- On 26th January 2016 the St. Joseph’s College for Women started a new custom to celebrate the Republic day in the college premises.
- The greatest achievement of the year 2015-16 was the initiative of TARANG, the first ever youth fest of St Joseph’s College for Women (A). This initiative of the student council proved to be a platform for all the Josephine’s to bring out the best in them. There were various literary and cultural competitions and events which include dance, singing, just a minute, story -telling quiz etc. Students and teachers had put up several stalls exhibiting and selling various products. The Horror House and the Retro themed ramp walk were some of the highlights of the event.