WHAT THE COLLEGE STANDS FOR

St. Joseph's College for Women (Autonomous), founded by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Annecy, is affiliated to Andhra University. The college was founded in July, 1958 in response to the local need for a Women's College in the City.

St. Joseph's College for Women, affirming its faith in God and love for all humanity, seeks to impart wholesome education to young women, enabling and empowering them to be self-reliant and responsible members of their family and society.

This institution of higher learning endeavours to make its own contribution in the light of its Christian world view towards a transformation of society, in which the principles of justice, freedom, respect for religious and moral values shall prevail.

The College seeks to achieve these aims while respecting all religious sentiments.

In carrying out its aims the College as a minority institution reserves for itself its inherent and constitutionally recognized right of management and administration.

In order to benefit from their years in St. Joseph's College, the students must have the aptitude and ability for higher studies as well as the desire to apply themselves seriously to all obligations of college life.
