ABOUT THE SESSION
"LANGUAGE AND LEADERSHIP"
 We are surrounded by thoughts on leadership, entire industries are built around the concept of developing leadership skills. Is your organization one person who it means to lead, they will likely give a unique answer. Although the definition of leadership is subjective to a degree, it generally involves creating a sense of unity and consensus among people, learning to lead... when your personal control is not so different from someone's language? In this session, we will consider the similarities.

GUEST LECTURE 2021
"REFLECTIVE WRITING"
 Reflective Writing is a process of drawing out thoughts and feelings from one's inner reserves to look at them from a slight distance. Rather like journaling, it is however not restricted to that. Instead, one can reflect on the book that one had dipped into, the play watched last evening or the music that played on the radio as you drove to work. There is something magical about the process that allows a new dimension to emerge in one's day to day life. In this talk, the speaker wishes to share some aspects of Reflective Writing and offer a glimpse of several teachers' experiences as they undertook to write reflective pieces.

GUEST SPEAKER
ANITA BUTANI
 Abu Dhabi, UAE

ABOUT THE SPEAKER
 Born and raised in Pune, Anita settled in Mumbai and then Abu Dhabi after getting married. She has a background in Psychology and has a much passion for it as the 26 letters in the alphabet. Her Passion in Clinical Psychology was the beginning of her exploration in the world of work, where she started teaching over the full spectrum of education level, all as undergrads. She also has experience teaching nonverbal young women using a combination of three languages including English, Hindi, and Marathi. Her inclination to work with the less privileged has wholeheartedly led to always sharing her knowledge. This growing love for the English language has brought Anita to be part of the SJC Language Centre activities for over a year now!

GUEST LECTURE 2022
"THE PSYCHOLOGY OF ENGLISH"
 Language is one of the most effective means of communication, yet learning a new language can be daunting for many. Learning English as a second or even third language can at times be a struggle or worth facing. Together we'll meet head-on these questions:
 Is there a theory around it? Are there any techniques to aid or ease the learning? Are there any barriers to learning? Does that affect how learners plan their teaching?
 Psycholinguistics, which is the psychology of learning a language (and teaching it), investigates all these and more. Essentially, it explores the relationship between the human mind and language, the way language is perceived and produced, and the processes that occur in the brain.

GUEST LECTURE 2021

"IDENTIFYING YOUR STRENGTHS & CAREER OPPORTUNITIES"

The search for a career can be a daunting task, however, it is important to have a plan. Using a thoughtful and deliberate approach, this seminar will help you identify career opportunities as well as determine your strengths so that you can capitalize on them. It is important for you to pursue opportunities that are a good match for your skills, strengths and interests. This takes time and you need to be persistent in your efforts. Through a personal Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats SWOT analysis, you will identify the strengths that you can capitalize on, the weaknesses that you may need to build new skills around and the opportunities and threats that you need to be aware of.
