Workshop on 'Candles & Cleaning Liquid Preparation'

Synopsis of the Workshop

Candle Making Workshop: Introduction: Candle making is an ancient craft that combines artistry and practicality. Participants learn to create candles using various materials, including wax, wicks, fragrances, and molds. Process: Selecting Wax: Participants choose from paraffin wax, soy wax, beeswax, or other specialty waxes. Melting and Pouring: The wax is melted, and fragrance or color can be added. Wick Placement: Wicks are placed in molds or containers. Cooling and Trimming: The candles cool and harden, and the excess wick is trimmed. Types of Candles: Container Candles: Made in jars or containers. Pillar Candles: Stand-alone candles without containers. Taper Candles: Long, thin candles often used for decoration. Floating Candles: Designed to float in water. Safety Precautions: Always work in a well-ventilated area. Use appropriate tools and equipment. Be cautious with hot wax and open flames. Cleaning Liquid Preparations: Purpose: Cleaning liquids are essential for maintaining hygiene and cleanliness. They remove dirt, stains, and germs from surfaces.

Workshop on 'Washing Powder & Phenyle Preparation'

Synopsis of the Workshop

Washing Powder: also known as laundry detergent, is a cleaning agent used for washing clothes. Composition: It typically contains surfactants, builders, enzymes, and other additives. Types: Powder Detergents: These are dry granules that dissolve in water during washing. Liquid Detergents: These are liquid formulations. Function: Washing powders removes dirt, stains, and odors from fabrics. Phenyl Preparation:

Phenyle (or phenyl) is a disinfectant and cleaning solution commonly used in households and commercial spaces. It contains phenolic compounds that have antimicrobial properties. Preparation: Phenyle can be prepared by mixing: Phenol: A chemical compound with disinfectant properties. Emulsifier: To help mix phenol with water. Water: To dilute the solution. The mixture is then bottled and used for cleaning floors, toilets, and other surfaces. Safety Precautions: Phenyle is toxic and should be handled with care. Use it in well-ventilated areas. Avoid contact with skin or eyes.

Workshop on English For Employability

Synopsis of the Topic

Contextualizing English Skills: The workshop addressed the growing need for English skills in India, where a large and diverse youth population seeks employment opportunities. Standardization and Quality: The focus was on creating a standardized framework for language skills, particularly English, to enhance employability. The workshop underscored the critical role of English skills in employability. By setting common standards, India can bridge the language gap and empower its youth for a fast-globalizing world. The student's knowledge was enhanced with the activity-based learning during the workshop.

Skills and careers in the context of Demographic Dividend

Synopsis of the Resource Talk

- According to United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), demographic dividend means, "the economic growth potential that can result from shifts in a population's age structure, mainly when the share of the working-age population (15 to 64) is larger than the non-working-age share of the population (14 and younger, and 65 and older)".
- With fewer births each year, a country's working-age population grows larger relative to the young-dependent population. With more people in the labor force and fewer children to support, a country has a window of opportunity for economic growth if the right social and economic investments and policies are made in health, education, governance, and the economy.

Campus to Corporate

Synopsis of the Resource Talk

Transitioning from campus life to the corporate world is a significant milestone marked by a shift in environment, responsibilities, and expectations. While the campus fosters a dynamic learning atmosphere, the corporate realm demands professionalism, adaptability, and real-world application of knowledge. This transition requires individuals to bridge the gap between theoretical understanding and practical implementation, navigating challenges such as workplace etiquette, time management, and teamwork. Embracing this transition involves cultivating essential skills, building networks, and aligning personal aspirations with professional goals. It's a journey of growth, self-discovery, and seizing opportunities to thrive in the ever-evolving corporate landscape.

Three Days Workshop on Soft Toy Making

Synopsis of the Resource Talk

We the Department of Home Science had a three-day workshop by Mrs. K. Rani an entrepreneur of soft toy making from 16th February to 18th February 2022. The 19AG batch student bought their materials like fur, felt, jean thread, scissors, drafting sheets, and other necessities. On the first day of the workshop, first, she demonstrated how to draft an elephant, puppy, chick, rabbit, and teddy bear. She taught the students how to draft and cut the shape of the toy and to finish it with the blanket stitch to give the toy a complete finish. On the second and third days of the workshop, students learned the proper stitching, finishing, and stuffing of the toy, and completed the soft toy making. The soft toy making enhances the students in the entrepreneurship program by developing their skills with eye-hand coordination and some creativeness within them.

ABOUT THE SESSION

"IDENTIFYING YOUR STRENGTHS & CAREER OPPORTUNITIES"

The search for a career can be a daunting task; however, it is important to have a plan. Using a thoughtful and deliberate approach, this seminar will help you identify career opportunities as well as determine your strengths so that you can capitalize on them. It is important for you to pursue opportunities that are a good match for your skills, strengths and interests. This takes time and you need to be persistent in your efforts. Through a personal (Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats) SWOT analysis, you will identify the strengths that you can capitalize on, the weaknesses that you may need to build new skills around and the opportunities and threats that you need to be aware of.

Synopsis of the Resource Talk

In today's rapidly evolving job market, possessing traditional job skills is no longer sufficient for long-term success. Employers increasingly seek individuals who possess a range of 21st-century employability skills—skills that go beyond technical expertise and include critical thinking, communication, collaboration, adaptability, and more. A recent session aimed at exploring and nurturing these skills shed light on their importance and methods for their development.

THREE DAY INTERNATIONAL WEBINAR

The First Three Day International Webinar of St. Joseph's College For Women (A) Visakhapatnam on "Career & Professional Development for Aspiring Graduates" organized by the Department of English from 18-20 May 2020 was a great success. The Resource Speaker was Ms. Vicki A. Hale, English language Fellow Alumna from the U.S. Dept of State. The target audience were graduates. Three-day Seminar was divided into three sessions- every day from 11:00 -12:30 PM on YouTube Live at St. Joseph's College campus.

18th May 2020 – Day -1 Preparing for a Job search, reflecting on past experiences.

19th May 2020 – Day-2 Writing a Winning Resume

20th May 2020 - Day-3 Success in Interviews

The Three-Day Sessions with a colossal 2771 participants was a stupendous success! All the participants complimented the College, the Organizing Team, and the logistics team for handling it well. Participants fell in love with her accent, pronunciation, and presentation. The students posed such brilliant questions which was clear that there was a lot of learning going on through her presentation. After each session quiz forms were sent to the participant's emails to test their knowledge. Based on the responses to the quiz from the participants and the attendance E- certificates we issued.

The screenshot shows a Google Meet interface. The main content is a presentation slide with a purple background. The slide features a quote from John Dewey: "JOHN DEWEY, 'We don't learn from experience, we learn by reflecting on experience.'" To the right of the quote is a bulleted list of topics for the class: "Today's class:", "What is reflection?", "Reflect on own lives", "Examine perceptions of the future", "Explore your own perspectives", "Deconstruction and reconstruction", and "Metacognitive Development". Below the slide, a text box reads: "Vicki Hale we can examine and look at our own biases or discrepancies or places that you're stuck or maybe stuck. This is often called deconstruction. Taking apart something before we put it back together. We'll talk about". The video feed on the right shows Vicki Hale speaking. The browser tabs at the top include "Google Meet", "Google Calendar - Event details", "Meet - ONE DAY WEBINAR", and "Allow external users to join a 'g...'". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 09:46 on 12-05-2020.
