About the Language departments

The Departments of Telugu, Hindi, Sanskrit, English & French have a prestigious history during the past 65 years with great educational visionaries heading each of them with wisdom and excellence. The Departments of English, Hindi and Telugu have been in the limelight for the past many years organizing diverse educational events for the benefit of the stakeholders and the knowledge fraternity in and around the country. The Language Departments have organized a number of Conferences and Workshops in Language Teaching. The Hindi Department with its illustrious Faculty has organized 5 National and 5 International Seminars & Webinars with wide patronage across the country and the feedback from the delegates has always been encouraging and outstanding.

About the FDP

Education, Literature and Culture have the power to transform entire societies, strengthen local communities and forge a sense of identity and belonging among people of all ages. Youth can act as a bridge between cultures and serve as key agents in promoting peace and intercultural understanding. These diversified domains of research provide a premier inter disciplinary platform for researchers, academicians and educators to present and discuss the most recent trends, innovations, concerns and practical challenges encountered in these fields and offer feasible solutions to the same. Transmitting the values of intercultural understanding through Education and Literature to the youth, for their holistic development and creating a sustainable environment from one generation to the next is essential, particularly in today's environment of intolerance and religious and communal bigotry

5Day Faculty Development
Program

Report of Five Day FDP at St. Joseph's College

17 -21 April 2023

Role of Education, Literature, and Cultures in Holistic Development of Youth The Five-day FDP organized under the auspices of the language departments was inaugurated by Dr. Nandamuri Lakshmi Parvati, Andhra Pradesh Telugu and Sanskrit Academy president on Monday at 10 am. Lamp was lit and started by the convenor, head of second languages department- Dr. P.K. Jayalakshmi said. Principal Dr. Sr. Shyji presided over the inauguration ceremony and former Hindi Head of Andhra University S.M. Iqbal, Writers and Journalists Association Secretary General Shivendra Prakash Dwivedi participated as distinguished guests and said that the role of education, literature, and culture is very important in the development of the youth's personality.

Convenor Dr. P.K. Jayalakshmi explained the objectives of the FDP. The parents, teachers, and society wished to lay the foundations for the personality development of the youth so that the future of the country would be wonderful only if the youth's thoughts, plans, and behavior are correct.

Chief Guest Dr Parvathi in her speech said that only if the youth achieve comprehensive development, can they reach from a very low level to an unparalleled level. Only then can the country take steps towards development. Youth can be the foundation of a strong society. Our literature and culture can cross continents and gain universal fame. FDP aims to achieve international development and show the superiority of our country to the world. The guests unveiled the books written by Sudha. The Chief Guest and the Principal unveiled the souvenir. Over 100 teachers, research students, linguists, and literature lovers participated in the FDP. The principal felicitated the guests with mementos. Co-conveners in the program Dr. Nirmala, Dr. Koteswara Rao, Dr. Krishnababu, Dr. Deepti Dr. Gowri Naidu Veena, and Prameela participated. Nalini Dutta, Head of the English Department proposed a vote of thanks.

FDP concludes at St. Joseph's College. -21 April 2023

Principal Dr. Sr. Shyji said that the Five-day FDP on the role of education, literature, and culture in the comprehensive development of youth, under the auspices of the language departments of St. Joseph's College, concluded on 21 April. Convener Dr. PK Jayalakshmi informed that the valedictory session of the FDP was attended by more than a hundred faculty members and research students. Dr. Benny HoD, Department of English, Andhra University was the chief guest and Telugu - professor A. Sitaratnam was the guest of honor and delivered the keynote address and gave certificates to all the participants of the FDP. He said that such conferences take the youth on the path of progress.
