Club: Biomusketeer's club	Date: 03/09/2022
Class/ Target audience: All Degree Students	Activity: Paper Dance Challenge
Participants: 24	Room: Main Stage

Description: A competition where participants in pairs danced on a piece of newspaper until the music stops. The newspaper is folded in every stop so it gets smaller and smaller with the proceeding rounds. It was a very fun filled activity. We kept old hit songs. The participants thoroughly enjoyed it. It was an outburst event.

Department: English	Date: 21-06-22 (Tuesday)
Class/ Target audience: All Degree Students	Activity: Knock out-lit spell
Participants:21	Room: G

Description: Knockout (A Duel of Words) was a battle of words where two participating students were pitted against each other; both were given a topic and a limit of 30 seconds within which time they had to jot down any and all words they could think of relating to the topic. At the end of 30 seconds, the participant with a greater number of correct words proceeded to the next round and competed with a new member and this continued in a "knockout" fashion until one emerged as a winner. There was an also a special intermediary round with four participants at a time with a topic to celebrate "World Music Day".

Club: Biomusketeer's club	Date: 15/06/2022
Class/ Target audience: All Degree Students	Activity: Origami activity- Born from folding
Participants:19	Room: Biotechnology lab

Description: Origami is the art of paper folding, which is often associated with Japanese culture. In modern usage, the word "origami" is used as an inclusive term for all folding practices, regardless of their coiture of origin. Origami helps children to understand the importance of cooperative learning. It's history is deep and powerful, and its symbolism is a moving message of hope and unconditional love. The students had to prepare origami art with the required item in the given time limit. It was and ice-breaking activity where we shared and had a glimpse so many forms of art or things through the students.

Clubs/Association Activity Report

Club: Consumer Club	Date: January 10, 2022
Class/ Target audience: All Degree Students	Activity: Map Pointing
Participants: 12	Room: T4

Description: Eleven students took part in the activity. The activity was conducted in two rounds. In the first round, we asked each student to pick a paper from five different bowls, each with five different topics (food, capitals, states, nicknames for the cities, and economic values). Students had to point out these five points on an Indian outline map. The students who qualified for the second round were given the names of a few countries and other things like the line of the equator, the tropic of cancer, etc. to mark on the world map.

First: Reshma Suhana-EEP (21AI211)

Clubs/Association Activity Report

Club/Association: Biology Association	Date: 4 - 3 - 2021
Class/ Target audience: CBZ Students	Activity: Bio Walk
Participants:25	Room: Stage

Description:A bio walk for students is an educational activity that involves taking a guided walk through a natural environment, such as a park, garden, or forest, to observe and learn about the biodiversity present in the area. During the bio walk, students may be guided by a teacher or expert who points out different plant and animal species, discusses their characteristics and habitats, and explains their ecological importance. This hands-on experience allows students to connect with nature, learn about local ecosystems, and gain a deeper understanding of biodiversity and conservation. Bio walks can be a valuable and engaging way to enhance students' environmental awareness and appreciation for the natural world.

Clubs/Association Activity Report

Club/Association: Heritage Club	Date: 13-2-21
Class/ Target audience: Final Years	Activity: LOGO MAKING
Participants:15	Room: T4

Description: A logo-making activity for students involves designing a unique and creative logo that represents a specific concept, idea, or organization. This activity encourages students to use their imagination, creativity, and design skills to create a visual symbol that effectively communicates a message or brand identity. It promotes critical thinking, problem-solving, and visual communication skills as students work to design a logo that is visually appealing and meaningful. Logo-making activities can be a fun and engaging way for students to explore graphic design principles and express their creativity through visual art.

Clubs/Association Activity Report

Club/Association: Home Science Association	Date: 22/8/2019
Class/ Target audience: Home Science Students	Activity: One Minute Game
Participants:27	Room: Textile Lab

Description: One-minute games for students are quick and engaging activities that can be completed in a short amount of time, typically lasting around one minute. These games are designed to be fast-paced, fun, and challenging, encouraging students to think quickly and act decisively. Some examples of one-minute games for students include "Quick Draw," where students have one minute to sketch a specific object or word, "Balloon Pop," where students have one minute to pop as many balloons as possible, or "Word Scramble," where students have one minute to unscramble a set of words. These games are great for energizing students, promoting teamwork, and fostering a sense of friendly competition in the classroom.

Club: Waste Management Club	Date: 13th February 2019
Class/ Target audience: Any one from degree	Activity: Us & Green Waves Recyclers
Participants: 45	Room: G Room

Description: "US & Green Waves Recyclers" is a student-led initiative focused on promoting environmental sustainability through recycling efforts. Students collaborate to collect recyclable materials within their school or community, such as paper, plastic, glass, and aluminum. They organize collection drives, create awareness campaigns, and educate their peers about the importance of recycling and its positive impact on the environment. Through hands-on activities like sorting, cleaning, and processing recyclables, students learn valuable lessons about waste reduction and resource conservation. The initiative not only contributes to a cleaner and greener environment but also fosters a sense of responsibility and stewardship among the student body.
