About The Global Sanskrit Forum:

"GLOBAL SANSKRIT FORUM" started in 2015 name of "Rashtriya Sanskrit Manch" it is primarily concerned with promoting Indian language, culture & heritage and tries to bring to the global platform and it does not promote any kind of political activity. It is purely scholarly. Now it is working in the field of education more than 12 countries. In India every states has its own organization.

About The College:

St. Joseph's College for Women (Autonomous), is the First Women's College in North Coastal, A.P and the First Autonomous College in Andhra region. A pioneer Women's institution known for its quality education, its has its alumnae spread across the country and the globe. The College has organized a number of training workshops for school teachers in past to create a pool of empowered teachers. In the current scenario, the teachers are constantly required to update and adapt new techniques and technology in the process of molding their students into global citizens.

About The Sanskrit Dept.:

The Department aims to make students aware of the structural, conceptual, Social & cultural aspects associated with the Sanskrit language, encourage students to speak in Sanskrit, expose them to the aesthetics of the language and embolden them to showcase their creative talents. The aim of the dept. is to promote and revive this ancient Indian language which has been known as the primary language and the pillar of Hinduism and source of literature of Vernacular language.

Objectives:

The Workshop is organised

- * To highlight the significance of Sanskrit studies for Non-Sanskrit people.
- * To demonstrate the relevance of Sanskrit in all the Indian philosophical streams.
- * To show the influence of Sanskrit in modern streams.

About the event:

This International workshop focuses on promoting the relevance and importance of the Sanskrit studies for young minds who are into modern studies. This event encompasses the practicality of the Sanskrit in this digital era. The strong influence and interrelationship of the devabhashaa in different streams i.e. Yoga, Music, Alankara, Computation etc. will be demonstrated by the eminent scholars from different countries. This event is open for all and there is no registration fee. The e-certificate will be provided to all the participants based on the attendance & submitted feedback.

About the Language departments

The Departments of Telugu, Hindi, Sanskrit, English & French have a prestigious history during the past 65 years with great educational visionaries heading each of them with wisdom and excellence. The Departments of English, Hindi and Telugu have been in the limelight for the past many years organizing diverse educational events for the benefit of the stakeholders and the knowledge fraternity in and around the country. The Language Departments have organized a number of Conferences and Workshops in Language Teaching. The Hindi Department with its illustrious Faculty has organized 5 National and 5 International Seminars & Webinars with wide patronage across the country and the feedback from the delegates has always been encouraging and outstanding.

About the FDP

Education, Literature and Culture have the power to transform entire societies, strengthen local communities and forge a sense of identity and belonging among people of all ages. Youth can act as a bridge between cultures and serve as key agents in promoting peace and intercultural understanding. These diversified domains of research provide a premier inter disciplinary platform for researchers, academicians and educators to present and discuss the most recent trends, innovations, concerns and practical challenges encountered in these fields and offer feasible solutions to the same. Transmitting the values of intercultural understanding through Education and Literature to the youth, for their holistic development and creating a sustainable environment from one generation to the next is essential, particularly in today's environment of intolerance and religious and communal bigotry
